PURPOSE & PROCESS

For the Council to consider a stipulated dismissal without prejudice in City of Victor v. City of Driggs, CV41-26-0062, contingent upon Driggs' agreeing that both sides would pay their own legal fees and costs.

BACKGROUND/ALTERNATIVES

The current wastewater service agreement runs through 2031, with two optional five-year extensions available to the City. While these terms provide a bridge through the near- and mid-term, a long-term governance structure remains a possibility. To explore a shared-facility option that could provide such long-term certainty, the City has offered to stipulate to dismissal without prejudice in the pending action, contingent upon Driggs' agreement to that both sides would pay their own legal fees and costs. Council approval is required to confirm this approach.
